

Medical Section

Annual Activity 2018

Title/Subject	Type of activity	Date	Venue	Partners
Medical Statistics Taster Day	Exhibition and workshops	28/02/2018	University of Leicester	PSI
Improving professional recognition and development opportunities for statisticians working in medicine and health	Presentation of paper prepared by the Medical Section to RSS Executive Committee meeting (Gill Price)	2/5/2018	Errol St	Honorary Secretary of the Society for Social Medicine
	Response to NIHR changes to funding of MSc Statistics courses	27/07/2018		Initiated discussions with RSS & NIHR Statistics Group. Resulted in a letter to the NIHR from MedSec, NIHR Stats group, the RSS President & President-elect.

Bradford Hill Memorial Lecture: Professor Nicholas Jewell 'Statistical Challenges in Infectious Disease Research: from HIV to Dengue'	Lecture	6/6/2018	LSHTM
Stepped-Wedge Challenges	Session at RSS 2018 (Mona Kanaan)	6/6/2018	Cardiff
Healthcare and Data: How do we get it right?	Attendance at public meeting	13/9/18	Cambridge
Behaviour and Health aka "nudge" interventions	Draft article sent to Significance magazine (Mark Pilling)	13/9/18
Old disease - new threat: Getting more bang for your buck with latent TB screening	Draft article in production for Significance magazine (Nathan Green)
Survey to ascertain extent of need for greater support from RSS for Professional recognition and development	Designing a survey of medical statisticians	August 2018 to end-2018	UK and wider	RSS Research and Policy Manager, Louise Whatham
Multiple imputation 40 years on, where are we now?	Scientific Meeting	4/12/2018	London	